

See things from a different angle?

At our very core, we're a company
based on exploration.

We're always seeking new ways to discover and produce oil and gas products, fresh approaches to refining and retail marketing, and innovative ideas for running our globally diverse business. That's why we highly value individual perspectives and independent spirit. We'll listen closely when you speak, invest in your development, and reward your accomplishments. At Hess, you'll discover you can make a difference—and be recognized for it! So, why not explore an exciting future with us? Exceptional opportunities are available in:

- Management
- Finance
- Engineering
- IT
