

When you walk into The Palm, you are joining a party that's been going strong for three generations. You are welcomed with a smile, and before you know it, you're raising a glass and are swept up and away by the spirit of the place.

The Palm is the oldest family-owned white tablecloth restaurant to expand across the United States and still maintain family ownership. Pio Bozzi and John Ganzi's original New York City steakhouse on Second Avenue has grown into a thriving empire of over 29 restaurants spanning the continent from Boston to Los Angeles. What is The Palm's secret? "Consistency – in service, ambiance, and the quality of the food: a nice, big lobster and a great steak."

The Palm continuously looks for highly motivated managers and chefs who are truly dedicated to the fast-paced and demanding restaurant industry. Our management teams are active within both the corporation and in the communities they serve. Because of its long tradition as a family-owned enterprise, The Palm highly values its employees and strives to reward their dedication with fair treatment and attractive benefits.
