

Diversity Matters When Guiding the Nation's Economy

At the Federal Reserve Board, located in Washington, D.C., and the twelve regional Reserve Banks, employees work on domestic and global matters that affect economics and consumers in countless ways.

The Federal Reserve values the importance of a well educated and diverse workforce. If you have the talent and want to make a difference in an intellectually challenging environment, in Business & Finance, Economics, Law or Information Systems Technology,
